This form must be presented when dropping off and picking up your quilts.

To be picked up by (name of person who will be picking up your items if you are unable to).
This form must be presented by the person picking up the work.

If you have more than 6 entries, please list remaining items on the back of this form.

Please note each quilt must have a label with your name on it, sewn on the back of the quilt, as well as a 4” hanging sleeve (with approximately 1” of ease). This must be done before arriving at the registration table. A printed description card of the item, which you will receive on Friday morning when dropping off your work, must be pinned on the front right hand corner of the quilt.
